

THE SHOFAR

Temple Beth Shalom Florida, New York
June 2022 Sivan / Tamuz 5782

From the Desk of Rabbi Rebecca P. Shinder

Our tradition sets forth protocols for mourning. For example, we are familiar with the rituals and customs for shiva, the 7 days following the death of a loved one and we know that we are to say kaddish on the yahrzeit of a parent. By the time you read this volume, our nation will still be in what is called sheloshim, the thirty days following a death. Yet this particular sheloshim follows multiple deaths, another mass murder perpetrated in a place that should be filled with the sounds of learning and laughter and not the pop, pop, pop of an assault weapon. Judaism acknowledges that this thirty-day period is to be less intense as shiva, but its limitations are an affirmation that, although the acute pain of separation and trauma may diminish, there still is a need for a liminal period before we return to life as an altered form of “normal.”

So, if you have trouble watching the news, our tradition urges you to give yourself time. If social media is a source of stress, our tradition instructs you to give yourself space. If you need a break from dealing with our communal loss, our tradition urges you to take it. If your children need extra support in addition to what I sent from the Union of Reform Judaism, please look at the resources from PBS Kids:

https://www.pbs.org/parents/thrive/helping-children-with-tragic-events-in-the-news?utm_campaign=&utm_content=1653430501&utm_medium=pbsofficial&utm_source=twitter&fbclid=IwAR1IwSzN6YlbAPkqEvVUOUu.JiDP6mU0JaTZ0xfnvC2QhxNf3rLKczfrlBM5

This June Shofar typically celebrates all that we have learned and celebrated in this past year. Typically, I use this article to tell you all of the special ways we are going to celebrate Shabbat this month before we transition to various informal Shabbat experiences. I want you to know about them and you can get more information in this volume prepared lovingly by our Volunteer of the Year, Sharon Ball.

But for this still period of mourning and lamentations, I will offer this prayer written by Rabbi Heather Miller:

Prayer After Acts of Violence

With love and healing,

Prayers and condolences,

We string another bead on the necklace of senseless tragedies in our community/nation/world.

Lives lost, wounded souls,

a community forever impacted.

We lift up names, and hands,

to hold space and each other,

in these fraught times after

Yet another school shooting this time in Uvalde, Texas.

Pain penetrating our hearts,

We find flowers and select stones,

We create makeshift memorials and share stories of growing grief learning more about loved ones lost.

And mourn.

This tragedy. Together.

Praying for peace to come soon.

May the Maker of Peace cause peace to rain down on us all.

Amen.

Such quiet blessings will be offered as we continue to be in mourning for those slain at this school, at that supermarket, at yet another church, and... What do we Jews do when we mourn and remember? We gather, we talk, we pray, we eat. Thanks to the tireless commitment of our leadership, our security protocols are multilayered including an armed guard for every service and program at our building. So please join in our physical and metaphorical safe environment for an open conversation and reflection during the oneg on Friday, June 3rd. We will be present with one another, not to discuss policies or voting records, but to hold space for each other in order to grieve and be inspired by our tradition. If you are unsettled by these latest events, you are not alone. No matter what, we will move through this period of sheloshim and sadness as a community. If this conversation is not for you, then you may choose to take a nosh and not join in the conversation. All paths are valid, accepted, and welcome.

This coming Shabbat also happens to be the fiftieth anniversary of the ordination of Rabbi Sally Priesand, the first woman to be ordained by the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion in 1972. I am your rabbi, in no small part because of her courage and commitment. Please join me and rabbis throughout the world in honoring her legacy. You will learn how she has made her mark in our movement and beyond. This pioneer has been a guest on our bimah and has been a speaker for our Orange County Federation, but on a less local and much grander scale, you will learn how Rabbi Priesand has been chosen to be codified in the Smithsonian's National Portrait Gallery. She is that quintessential prophet in our own time. Please join me as we take pause to celebrate all that she has done and continues to do for our Union of Reform Judaism.

Speaking of anniversaries, June 3rd will also be a time to honor and bless anniversaries and birthdays that will take place in June, July, and August. Our Hebrew school children have voted, and we will serve cake on the first Shabbat of every month in honor of these joyous occasions.

Shalom, Rabbi Shinder

Shabbat Services will continue in the sanctuary and on Zoom through the end of June and feature these special additions:

- June 3rd: Birthday and Anniversary Blessings for June, July and August and Optional TBS Sheloshim Oneg Dialogue
- June 10th: Musical Shabbat
- June 17th: Baby Naming of Lilliane Parker
- June 24th: Informal Shabbat-in-the-Round featuring Mediation and Chair Yoga: We will sit in the round and connect with the meaning of some of our most important prayers while engaging in light movements to embody their messages. Our prayerbook and our congregant, Eleonora Horn, will be our guides. No yoga expertise or fancy yoga pants required! Come try something new! If we like it, we'll offer more opportunities like this in the Fall.

TIYULIM = HIKING/TOURING

We'll try to meet once a month for a walk or a hike. Weather permitting, our next meet is Sunday, June 26th 10AM.

Location to be announced. Walk as long or as far as you want, talk, schmooze, connect with old friends or make new friends.

RSVP with your cell number to wendybcedar@gmail.com so she can call to cancel if necessary.

CO-PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Imagine your perfect Jewish community. Let's pretend there is no Temple Beth Shalom and we have gathered together to form a Jewish Community Center. What would your house of gathering and worship look like? What activities would you enjoy doing with your Jewish community? Inquiring minds want to know!

Jewish houses of worship are changing - reforming - throughout the country and TBS, to stay viable and vibrant, to stay a family of families must reform also.

On Sunday, June 5th at 3PM and Monday, June 6th at 7PM I invite you to join your community at a round table to share your ideas, wants and needs. This is the beginning of a very important and what will be an ongoing discussion. TBS is at a crossroads. Which way will we go? That is up to you.

We're planning a party! TBS Spring Fling is Saturday, June 11th at 4 pm. Join us for a relaxing evening under the tent and enjoy delicious food, entertainment, sing a long, kids crafts and lawn games all brought to you by TBS members. I can't think of a better way to connect!

Shabbat Services continue through the end of June. For me, services are a welcome respite and a great way to start the weekend. For July and August Rabbi takes (I'm sure) a much needed and well deserved personal respite. In the planning are Summer Shabbat Experiences - watch the weekly email blasts for more info, dates, etc. AND if you would like to host a summer experience (it doesn't have to be on Shabbat) please let me or Iris know.

I wish you a relaxing summer. L'Shalom, Catherine

Just a friendly reminder to encourage you to email the temple office to keep us informed of any health issue you, your spouse, your child, or your parent may be facing. Vital information such as this can never be over communicated. Please do not assume that if one congregant knows what is happening that the entire community knows. Please tell us if you'd like to include that loved one on the Mi Shebeirach list, or, conversely if someone should be removed from it. -With thanks, Your TBS Family

We're interested in what our congregants want/need and how we can stay relevant in the future. Think about what TBS would look like if we were just starting out today.

In these days of dwindling membership in synagogues all over, it's important that we come together as a family to do what's best for TBS in the years to come.

If you have not already responded, please email wendybcedar@gmail.com or catherinegreenblatt@gmail.com with the date and time that's best for you.

SISTERHOOD PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

SISTERHOOD ON SUMMER VACATION...

Summer is upon us.

We are all looking forward to the warmth and brightness summer brings to everyone. Some are looking forward to family vacations, graduations, college visits, new babies being born or just being with friends and family.

As I left temple last week after the unveiling for our beloved Roberta Frischman, two emotions were competing sadness that Roberta was not there organizing the luncheon and happiness that I was able to connect with close friends. I know I have been absent from our temple for my own reasons or excuses, but plan to take my summer to recharge.

Sisterhood as well as our temple community was so important for Roberta. I am hoping to encourage myself and others to push ourselves to keep our Sisterhood alive and thriving here at Temple Beth Shalom. Sisterhood supports temple in many ways, we need you.

Please send me any new ideas to support Sisterhood and temple, any new ideas for events, activities or fundraisers.

Enjoy your summer.

Love, Robin Bordman thebordmans@aol.com

You never know what's going to happen during an Erev Shabbat Service, but one thing you can count is Bella Gottlieb twirling and her sister Abbigail assisting Rabbi Shinder with Kiddush & Motzi.

Then of course, there will be Birthday and Anniversary blessings, as Catherine Greenblatt and Sharon Ball received the 1st Shabbat in May. Josh Levin received the traveler's prayer as he was soon departing for Israel

How amazing it is to have Jacob Shinder accompany our rabbi and our congregation in musical prayer!
