

THE SHOFAR

Temple Beth Shalom Florida, New York
Summer 2022 Av / Elul 5782

From the Desk of Rabbi Rebecca P. Shinder

Dearest TBS Friends,

I hope that you all are enjoying some much-needed downtime.

I am relishing a quiet summer full of family fun, trips to the theater, reconnecting with friends, and taking time for some fantastic non-academic reading including “Wish You Were Here” by Jodi Picoult and “Lessons in Chemistry” by Bonnie Garmus. For our younger congregants; “Sally Opened Doors” by Sandy Eisenberg Sasso - a “hot off the presses” children’s book about the trailblazing, Rabbi Sally Preisand and I highly recommend “The Last Rose of Shanghai” by Weina Dai Rande.

Our kids have had fantastic adventures and experiences this summer. Jeremy studied film at The University of Bolgna, and trekked around much of Italy during his downtime! Jacob was a counselor at his beloved diabetes camp, and was the lead singer & guitar player of the camp band, Jacob & The Diabetics! Hannah is about to star in two local productions, All Shook Up and Punk Rock Girl. There is never a dull moment in the Shinder House.

While I have yet to coordinate two separate pre-college shopping trips and oversee plenty of packing, I have been coordinating elements for our upcoming TBS academic year. Specifics will be put forth in the September Shofar, but to share some broad strokes of the program, we will continue with the highly attended Hebrew School, Thursdays on Zoom from 4:30 to 5:45PM. We will feature much of that learning during the first of the month Shabbat services, with birthday blessings and after a community Shabbat dinner and will build upon the social and savvy learning during our monthly Yachad programs. AND we will gather for a monthly TBS mitzvah Saturday or Sunday. All of these educational events are planned to make real our motto TBS: Making Memories while making a difference. Please see the graphic below in order to get a feel for how we are going to “do Jewish” this year. We will learn, we will socialize, we will perform mitzvot, we will celebrate and so much more.

HOW WE LEARN AT TBS 2022 - 2023

Please mark your calendars as we reclaim a terrible date in our nation’s history. Sunday, September 11th will feature the comeback of our traditional opening day Barbeque and Open House. We begin with an opening ceremony in our sanctuary at 10AM complete with blessings and time with the Torah. We then transition to learning and team building with field games outside. In the spirit of some silliness, healthy competition, class bonding, and fun we will play in teams according to our Hebrew color modules:

Pre-Hebrew w/ Cheryl & Liz, Kachol (Blue)

Levels 1 & 2 w/ Scott, Adom (Red)

Level 3 & 4: w/ new teacher Tepper, Tzahov (Yellow)

Level 5 w/ the Rabbi, Yarak (Green)

Post B’nei Mitzvah Community Service Club, Lavan (White)

More details will follow. In the meantime, “See you in September.” Rabbi Shinder

CO-PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Ahhh, summer in Orange County. The warm weather, the sunny skies, the greenery all around us. I hope you've all taken the opportunity to enjoy some outdoor activities and time with friends and family.

Thank you to everyone who participated in our Round Table discussions in June. We received some great insight into what our community does well and where people would like to see change. If you weren't able to participate, and have some questions or insight to share, Catherine and I are always available to connect with you.

Thank you to Shari Rake and Rich Schwartz who opened their home to us for dinner and Havdallah last month. It was great to spend some time with temple folks, enjoy some good food (what else would Jews do when they get together?!), and have a bit of Jewishness together.

Thank you in advance to Flo and Andy Hannes who will be opening their home for a Shabbat experience on 8/12. It's not too late to let us know if you'll be joining us, and to prepare a dish for the pot luck dinner.

September will be upon us before we know it. The High Holidays fall at the end of September this year, but Shabbat services will begin early in the month. It's been challenging to muster up the energy to get out of the house since the start of the pandemic, but it's soooo re-invigorating to enjoy a little bit of Sabbath Peace and reconnect with our community on Friday nights! I hope you'll find the energy to come out too, and we can reconnect after hibernating for over 2 years.

Looking forward to seeing you soon, Wendy wendybcedar@gmail.com

TIYULIM = HIKING/TOURING

We'll try to meet once a month for a walk or a hike. Weather permitting, our next meet is Saturday, August 27th 9AM. Location to be announced. Walk as long or as far as you want, talk, schmooze, connect with old friends or make new friends. RSVP with your cell number to wendybcedar@gmail.com so she can call to cancel if necessary.

Left— July walk at the Delaware River
where NY, NJ and PA intersect.

SISTERHOOD PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy Summer!

I hope everyone is enjoying their summer, spending time with family and friends.

Please look for Sisterhood events in the fall.

We'll be having a Rosh Hashanah fundraiser and a New Year Sisterhood gathering.

Please email any ideas you would like to share to me.

Robin Bordman...thebordmans@aol.com.

The Jewish Federation of Greater Orange County, who is partnered with My Tree in Israel, is investing in Israel by receiving a plot in an orchard of an Israeli farmer. We have the opportunity to extend our plot by adopting olive trees, which will help support an Israeli farmer, yield us boutique, kosher, Israeli olive oil, and be a fundraising opportunity for the Federation. Our Goal: To give all of our members the opportunity to participate in the community plot. For a modest contribution of $50, you can invest in community trees, and receive a bottle of boutique, kosher, extra virgin olive oil with the community label. Fifteen dollars from your contribution will return to our community. You can also adopt your own tree in our plot and receive six bottles with your own personal label.

THE AMAZING
GEORGE GERSHWIN
SUNDAY, AUGUST 28th
2 TO 3:30PM
AT KOL YISRAEL
290 NORTH ST., NEWBURGH

People view Classical music the same way they think of kale. They know it is good for them, but still won't eat any. We all know the wonderful world of classical music is out there, but are still searching for the recipe that will make it palatable.

There is no better composer to bring all listeners to the magnificent world of symphonic music than George Gershwin. He wrote funny and timeless show tunes such as "You say Ee-ther and I say Eye-ther," but also the Opera "Porgy and Bess." He wrote adorable symphonic miniatures such as "Walking the Dog" but also the iconic "Rhapsody in Blue"

Ken's presentation blends both live and recorded performances of his fun and easy to digest music, but also introduces his more substantial compositions as well. Gershwin did not compose his show tunes to a lower standard than his symphonic music. Ken will show how the same level of sophistication and brilliance found in his "Concerto in F" is also found in "Fidgety Feet."

Likewise the wit and humor of his show tunes permeates his concert works as well.

TBS congregant, Ken Korn, local music teacher and musician, will take us through a journey of Gershwin's music. We'll learn how being Jewish in America shaped him and his work.

REGISTER: jewishorangeny.org/JewishComposers

Below: At TBS in July, Ken gave us the fascinating background story of West Side Story and its composer Leonard Bernstein.
