

THE SHOFAR

Temple Beth Shalom Florida, New York
February 2025 Shevat 5785

From the Desk of Rabbi Rebecca P. Shinder

Behold this image taken in 1995 Jerusalem of a subset of The Ben Yehuda Street Players. You may wonder how the baby could hold her harmony lines or when did Hannah learn to play the guitar. Baby Iliana was the strong but silent type, and that's me holding the guitar next to my dear friend Rabbi Cantor Angela Warnick Buchdahl. This is one of the mitzvah projects I helped coordinate during my first year as a rabbinical student at the Hebrew

Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion. Although far from signing a record deal, we future rabbis, cantors, and educators would busk every Friday morning on the busy Jerusalem walking mall (midrochov) to tourists who wanted to hear our version of tunes ranging from Simon & Garfunkel to The Beatles to Billy Joel to some modern Israeli pop music. After each set, a classmate introduced us as the future leadership of the Reform Movement and made an appeal for folks to toss some shekels into a guitar case to support various causes throughout the city.

I would take the spoils of the morning's performance to Bank Leumi (which BTW was founded on February 27, 1902 in Tel Aviv-Yafo/Jaffa!) and ask a very patient clerk to convert a bag of agarot (think nickles, dimes & quarters) and smaller coin shekelim (think Canadian $1 and $2 loonies and toonies) into larger paper shekel bills. I then took this "music money" to a florist in order to buy flowers for patients in Shaarei Tzedek Hospital. With the ice breaker of flowers in hand, I performed the mitzvah of visiting the sick, bikur cholim, as a 'rabbi in training' mostly in Hebrew. I did share smiles, flowers, and a 'Shabbat Shalom' with a Russian immigrant who could neither speak Hebrew or English. On my way out of her room, I conjured up a line from an Indiana Jones film. Although it was sinisterly delivered to Dr. Jones in the movie, I turned around and said to the patient with a quizzical smile "Dasvidaniya?" She laughed and smiled and said goodbye to me in her language about 5 times!

That exchange took place 30 years ago and I remember as if it was yesterday. The Ben Yehuda Street Players' profits made that magical mitzvah moment possible. This May will mark 25 years since those young rabbinical students were ordained. After earning a Masters of Arts in Hebrew Letters, a Master of Arts in Jewish Studies, coursework approaching the conferring a PhD, after 25 years of devoted service to the Jewish people and the larger world, each of those now older and wiser rabbis will be conferred as a Doctor of Divinity.

Music has been a part of my rabbinical journey since those Ben Yehuda Street days, those Havdalah ceremonies under the Jerusalem and desert skies, through my years as a Cantorial Intern at The Reform Temple of Suffern, through my TBS interview in 2005.

On February 8th our Shabbat Shira Service & Luncheon will continue that musical connection. While different from The Ben Yehuda Street Players, musicians of all ages from both temples will join in song, prayer, and community to elevate a Shabbat experience like no other. Our dedicated volunteers have chosen a New Orleans theme for our luncheon. There will be no organized busking during the lunch, but we hope you throw some 'paper shekels' in our puske to support this event. I'll see you there and Laissez les bon temps rouler! Just come and let the good times roll! Rabbi Shinder

CO-PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Shalom Chaverim,

We are in the depths of winter and boy is it cold outside! But there is something that warms my heart, over the past few weeks I see images of Israeli hostages being released back into the loving arms of friends and family! Well over a year in the dangerous hands of captivity by Hamas. What an incredibly difficult time that must have been to survive, and what could possibly have gone through their minds during captivity? It reminds me in some ways of a book I am currently reading, the autobiography of Geddy Lee. Who you say? The bassist and lead singer of the Canadian rock group RUSH! To me, the greatest rock group of all-time! Rock-n-roll, parties, how does this possibly correlate? Well, let me introduce Geddy Lee a different way. Born Gershon Eliezer Weinrib, named after his Grandfather, who was murdered in the Holocaust, son of parents who luckily survived the horrors of Auschwitz and Bergen-Belsen concentration camps.

Stories told to Geddy in his childhood from his mother Malka, truly resonated with me. Ready to read about my favorite band and their rise to stardom, I was instead reading one of the most captivating Holocaust stories I have ever read. We do find out what was going through the minds of those in captivity, as Malka states upon liberation from Bergen-Belsen on April 15, 1945, "When we were told to come out, and that we were free, we could not believe it. We were in shock. We had assumed there was no one left alive to save us, otherwise why had they not come sooner?" This story did indeed become a RUSH song named 'Red Sector A'.

Watch the live version here: youtube.com/watch?v=djxL4qnDmhg

"Are we the last ones left alive? Are we the only human beings to survive?" Lyrics by Neil Peart, the drummer, who took Geddy's stories and crafted some of the finest rock music. Geddy's parents were married at Bergen-Belsen shortly after liberation! As Geddy put it, 'quite a destination for a wedding!' Geddy's autobiography is titled 'My Effin' Life' if you are interested, or perhaps when I am finished reading my copy!

Staying with the theme of music, and perhaps to demonstrate our freedoms and perseverance as a people, it is our turn to gather as congregants and enjoy one another's company in a musical Sabbath of Singing!

Please join us in-person at Temple Beth Shalom on Saturday, February 8th at 10am for our 3rd Annual Shabbat Shirah Event! A collaboration of Temple musicians from both Temple Beth Shalom and Monroe Temple Beth-El, will lead us on a journey through a variety of settings and musical styles! Enjoy our special service in song and be sure to stay for the luncheon to follow! See the flyer in this Shofar.

Shalom u'le'hitraot,

Eric Goodman, Co-President, Temple Beth Shalom

A Prayer for the Families of the Hostages in Gaza By Rabbi Paul Kipnes

As 3 Israeli families celebrate the return of 3 women from the tunnels of Gaza, we hold in our hearts the families of the remaining 94 hostages. To the families of the 94, we say: The entire Jewish world - Kol Am Yisrael - is holding you close Every single day.

Your children are our children Your parents, our parents, Your siblings are our siblings, Your grandparents are our saba and savtas. Our hearts hope with yours.

In the name of God, Rachmana - the Compassionate One, We pray:

May you feel our overflowing love, Washing over you, Surrounding you, A soft sukkat shalom, a shelter of peace, In the storm of anxiety, anguish, and hope.

In the name of Shomer Yisrael - Guardian of Israel, We pray:

May the day come soon When your tears of sorrow turn to tears of joy, When, through the safe return of your loved ones, Their voices will once again fill your homes With laughter and love. Until that day, We stand with you as Am Echad - one family, Bound together In hope, love, and with unwavering prayers.

Adonai oz l'amo yitein, Adonai y'vareich et amo v'shalom - May God grant strength to our people; May God bless us with peace. Amen.

Celebrate Purim 5785 It's a Mitzvah!

There's more to Purim than groggers and hamantaschen.
This year, we are reforming our celebration!
These are the ways to celebrate Purim this year:

- ✧ Have a joyous celebration by attending a county-wide carnival on Sunday, March 16th 10AM at Temple Beth Shalom, Florida
- ✧ We will not be preparing bags of Purim items this year. Instead, we will be helping the lives devastated by the October 7th war in Israel.
- ✧ We will donate to this organization that supports families of the remaining hostages.

The Hostage and Missing Families Forum Less was formed than 24 hours after the horrific attack by Hamas on Israel on October 7th, in which thousands of innocent civilians were murdered and taken hostage by Hamas. The Forum is volunteer-based and laser-focused on bringing the hostages back home to their families, to us. The forum offers families holistic support and professional assistance and advances the ongoing efforts through all channels, locally, regionally and globally, to bring the hostages and the missing back home to their loved ones. This mitzvah includes education that many still need.

Learn more here: bringthemhomenow.net

You will be receiving a list of our temple members. Every family that you choose will receive a lovely Purim card with a list inside of the names of those donating in their honor. These are the levels of donations: 1 family = $3 10 families = $20 20 families = $40 30 families = $60 40 families = $80 60 families = $100 All families (The Whole Megillah!) = $154 Please send your member choices and check, made payable to TBS to the office, 13 Roosevelt Ave., Florida, NY 10921 by Friday, February 28th. TREASURER'S REPORT ~ Catherine Greenblatt

Dear Chaverim,

This article is a reminder that the end of our fiscal year, June 30, 2025 is approaching.

First I'd like to thank all TBS members who have paid their obligation, sending a monthly check or has their credit card charged monthly. Your support has gotten us through to this point.

I believe everyone is aware that we are on an austerity budget. Last week I ran a budget vs. actual report which showed that we are only $2,000 "in the black." Needless to say, very soon we will be "in the red."

I am asking, if you are able, to please submit all or a part of your financial obligation. You can arrange to have a set amount to be debited monthly; just contact Kelly in the office. You can also make a payment through our website: tbsny.org/donate. The link is on the top right of the homepage. Remember: no one is turned away because of their lack of ability to meet their obligation. Do not hesitate to contact me to discuss. Every request is confidential. I can be reached via email, phone or text.

Can I ask for more? Yes! There are many ways to help TBS. We have established a technology fund; sponsorships for Shabbat Shira are welcome; the Purim Mishloach Manot fundraiser is about to begin - please participate. And, of course, we are always happy to receive a donation for no reason at all!

Again, if you have any questions or concerns, contact me.

B'Shalom, Catherine

Friends,

As we draw close to filing our taxes for 2024, we would like to share with the congregation how Qualified Charitable Contributions can help you reduce your Tax Liability and make donations to Temple Beth Shalom.

(IRA) owners age 70½ or over can transfer up to $100,000 to charity tax-free each year. These transfers, known as qualified charitable distributions or QCDs, offer eligible older Americans a great way to easily give to charity.

And, for those who are at least 73 years old, QCDs count toward the IRA owner's required minimum distribution (RMD) for the year.

We encourage you to speak with your Financial or Tax Professional to see if you can benefit from this information."
